

Effective immediately, Impac is suspending drawing closing documents and funding loans in the state of Florida until further notice.

Impac will monitor the effect of Hurricane Irma's tropical storms on the states north of Florida; updates will be provided as more information becomes available.

Note that the suspension of closing loans or recertification requirements for these locations will not be lifted until more definitive information has been provided by FEMA. Updates will be provided as more information becomes available.

Click Here for a Printer Friendly Graphic

If you have questions, please contact 855-GO-IMPAC (855-464-6722)